

Jesus, through the lens of Peter

'How we see Jesus keeps changing, but as it determines how we respond to him, it is vital that we see him as he wants to be seen. I take those attending through a provocative, but light hearted and often funny journey through the life of Peter to bring people to this understanding.'

Aneel Aranha is the founder and director of Holy Spirit Interactive, a Catholic lay apostolate. A hard-core atheist for 25yr, a series of catastrophic events that took place in his life in 2002 led to a powerful encounter with Jesus, transforming him from a hedonistic unbeliever to a fiery proclaimer of the gospel across the globe. A renowned international preacher and retreat leader, Aneel has spoken to hundreds of thousands of people in parishes and prayer groups around the world, preached retreats to priests, politicians and prisoners, and addressed millions of viewers on international television.
